Two Bit Infantry Team Smothers Sneeze Squad

Fifteen Runs and Fourteen Hits By Wrecking Crew During Affray on Sunday—Fatalities, 15 to 3—Santa Clara Play Bang Up Ball on Saturday Afternoon and Win From St. Louis 5 to 2—Visitors Will Take Jaunt to Volcano

Members of the Santa Clara base ball team are going to take a trip. Not that they haven't taken a trip before—in fact they tripped on Sunday—but letting that go, they are going to see the second wonder of the islands, viz: Halemaumau, the House of Everlasting Fire. During their short sojourn on Oahu they have been familiar with eruptions, spasms, ice cream cones and eat seters.

They had a warm session at Athletic Park on Sunday afternoon with the Team of Everlasting Fire. In fact there was so much firing throughout the session that old J. Pluvius had to butt in to keep away the mighty holocaust. The first wonder of the islands, the 25th Infantry, has been looked over, and as far as Santa Clara is concerned they state that they wish they had been overlooked. Forsooth, 'twould have been much better. He Didn't See It.

The boss says always tell your story in the first paragraph, but the boss didn't see that game on Sunday or he would have made a tabulation leaving room for exceptions. He didn't have to see it. Well, the aggregation sometimes known as the Wrecking Crew, with 25th Infantry written all over their white blouses, succeeded in trimming the Santa Clara university baseball team on Sunday afternoon at Athletic Park by the score of 15 to 3.

The score might have been larger if it had not been for J. Pluvius and N. Stayton working together. After Santa Clara had failed to score in the first of the eighth, the sky juice began to appear and Captain Stayton, the arbiter with the armor, decided that the spectators had seen enough. For once the crowd cheered him to the echo.

There was a gay and blissful period during the afternoon, and taking advantage of this the 25th decided to do a little hammering, and when the day was over they had collected 14 hits, 15 runs, and 17 laughs. The laughs do not appear in the box score. Everything else does.

The 25th team decided that they were going to have a little ducklet connoisseur, so decided to allow "Lefty" Aulston to mount the hillcock and battle with the visitors. And the crooked arm hurler made good with a vengeance. He toyed with the over-weening boys and allowed them four measly singles.

Aulston was making his debut against the visitors and in the first inning allowed the Claretans two bingles which were converted into two runs. From that time on until the eighth inning the southpaw did not allow the semblance of a hit.

To show that he was pitching good ball he sent nine of the Santos back to the long corner. Rogan, Waterhouse, Jasper or any other pitcher in the 25th stable could not have done better. Aulston was ably assisted by Dad Swinton who had the recruit pitching all the time. Swinton had him shooting left balls, corner ticklers and his fast-breaking curves had the boys from the Mission school at his mercy. In addition to his work behind the plate, Swinton was the star with the bat, getting four bingles in four times up.

Rogan, Crafton and Johnson were in the line-up Sunday with the big bluegum. In the seventh inning Rogan hit a line drive over Milburn's head which struck the gate, and if someone had opened the portals wide the ball would have gone to King street. Instead, the ball hit the boards and Rogan cried the hash-socks.

In the fifth canto Mr. Royal Bliss, who had succeeded Francisco Gay, grooved one and Crafton jumped right on it and sent it over Wilson's head in right for four socks. Johnson also came through with a hard drive to right, but a fast relay held him at third. Santa Clara could not find Aulston for an extra base.

Scored Two in First.

In the first inning Rogan and Aulston skidded in the mud and two men were safe, and with two hits by O'Neill and Bensberg the visitors chalked up two runs, and the hopes of the Santa Clara rooters were high. But after the Art Smithing was over they felt like the denizens of the deep. The 25th Infantry went out and scored four on singles by Swinton, Crafton and Gollah, a double by Hawkins and a triple by Johnson. They batted around.

And did not the Santa Claretans come back with a vengeance in the second inning? They did not. Aulston fanned the first two of the Signal Corps artists and Milburn rolled to Gollah. Gay got by until the fourth, and then it rained. It did not only rain globules of aqua but it rained hits and runs, ivory particles and sadness. The 25th scored six runs and Hawkins got two pokes at the ball in this session.

Another Game.

Roy Bliss had been communing with Morpheus on the bench, and when Pat Gleason poked him in the ribs, Roy looked up and rubbing his eyes said: "It's not my lead; I just dealt." After the new coach of the Santa Clara team had informed Roy that he wasn't playing bridge, Roy went out on the mound to face the music.

Roy dealt all right. He gave Mr. Crafton a deuce and the 25th Infantry left fielder put an ace on it and sent it far afield beyond the suburbs of Wilsonville. There were two men on the sacks at the time and it gave the 25th Infantry three runs, and adding the one previous by Aulston makes four. 3-1-4.

Santa Clara scored their third and last run on an error by Gollah, a walk and a fielder's choice. Rogan's homer in the seventh gave the 25th squad their last run, and after Santa Clara failed to score Stayton said "Stuff, and the crowd wandered out of the turnstiles toward the corn beef and cabbage waiting on the Sunday evening tablecloth.

Joy Is Short.

'Twas momentary joy on Saturday afternoon. Barney Joy essayed to stop the Santa Clara. There is where the momentary comes in. Barney did not stop them and the Santa Claretans won out by a score of 5 to 2. Barney's turn on the mound, which was a trifle over two innings, gave the visitors four of their runs and five of the seven hits.

"Pinkie" Leonard was on the firing line for the Santos, and the Pink Person pitched a nice game. He held the St. Louis team to four singles, and in the last six innings he did not allow a hit, and only 19 men faced him. Desmond made an error on Nye's fly or Michael would have retired them in order for the entire sextette of frames.

Janssen Is There.

After Barney had been sent out into the juncos, Bill Janssen, the stonemason blonde twirler, got into the game and pitched good ball although his range-finder was off color at times. He held the Sneezers to two hits, and also made one of the two runs and one of the four hits off Leonard.

Santa Clara played ball on Saturday like a million dollars. They made some good stops and throws and looked good with Leonard holding the Saints safe. When they hit the ball they hit it on a line, and four doubles were collected during the afternoon.

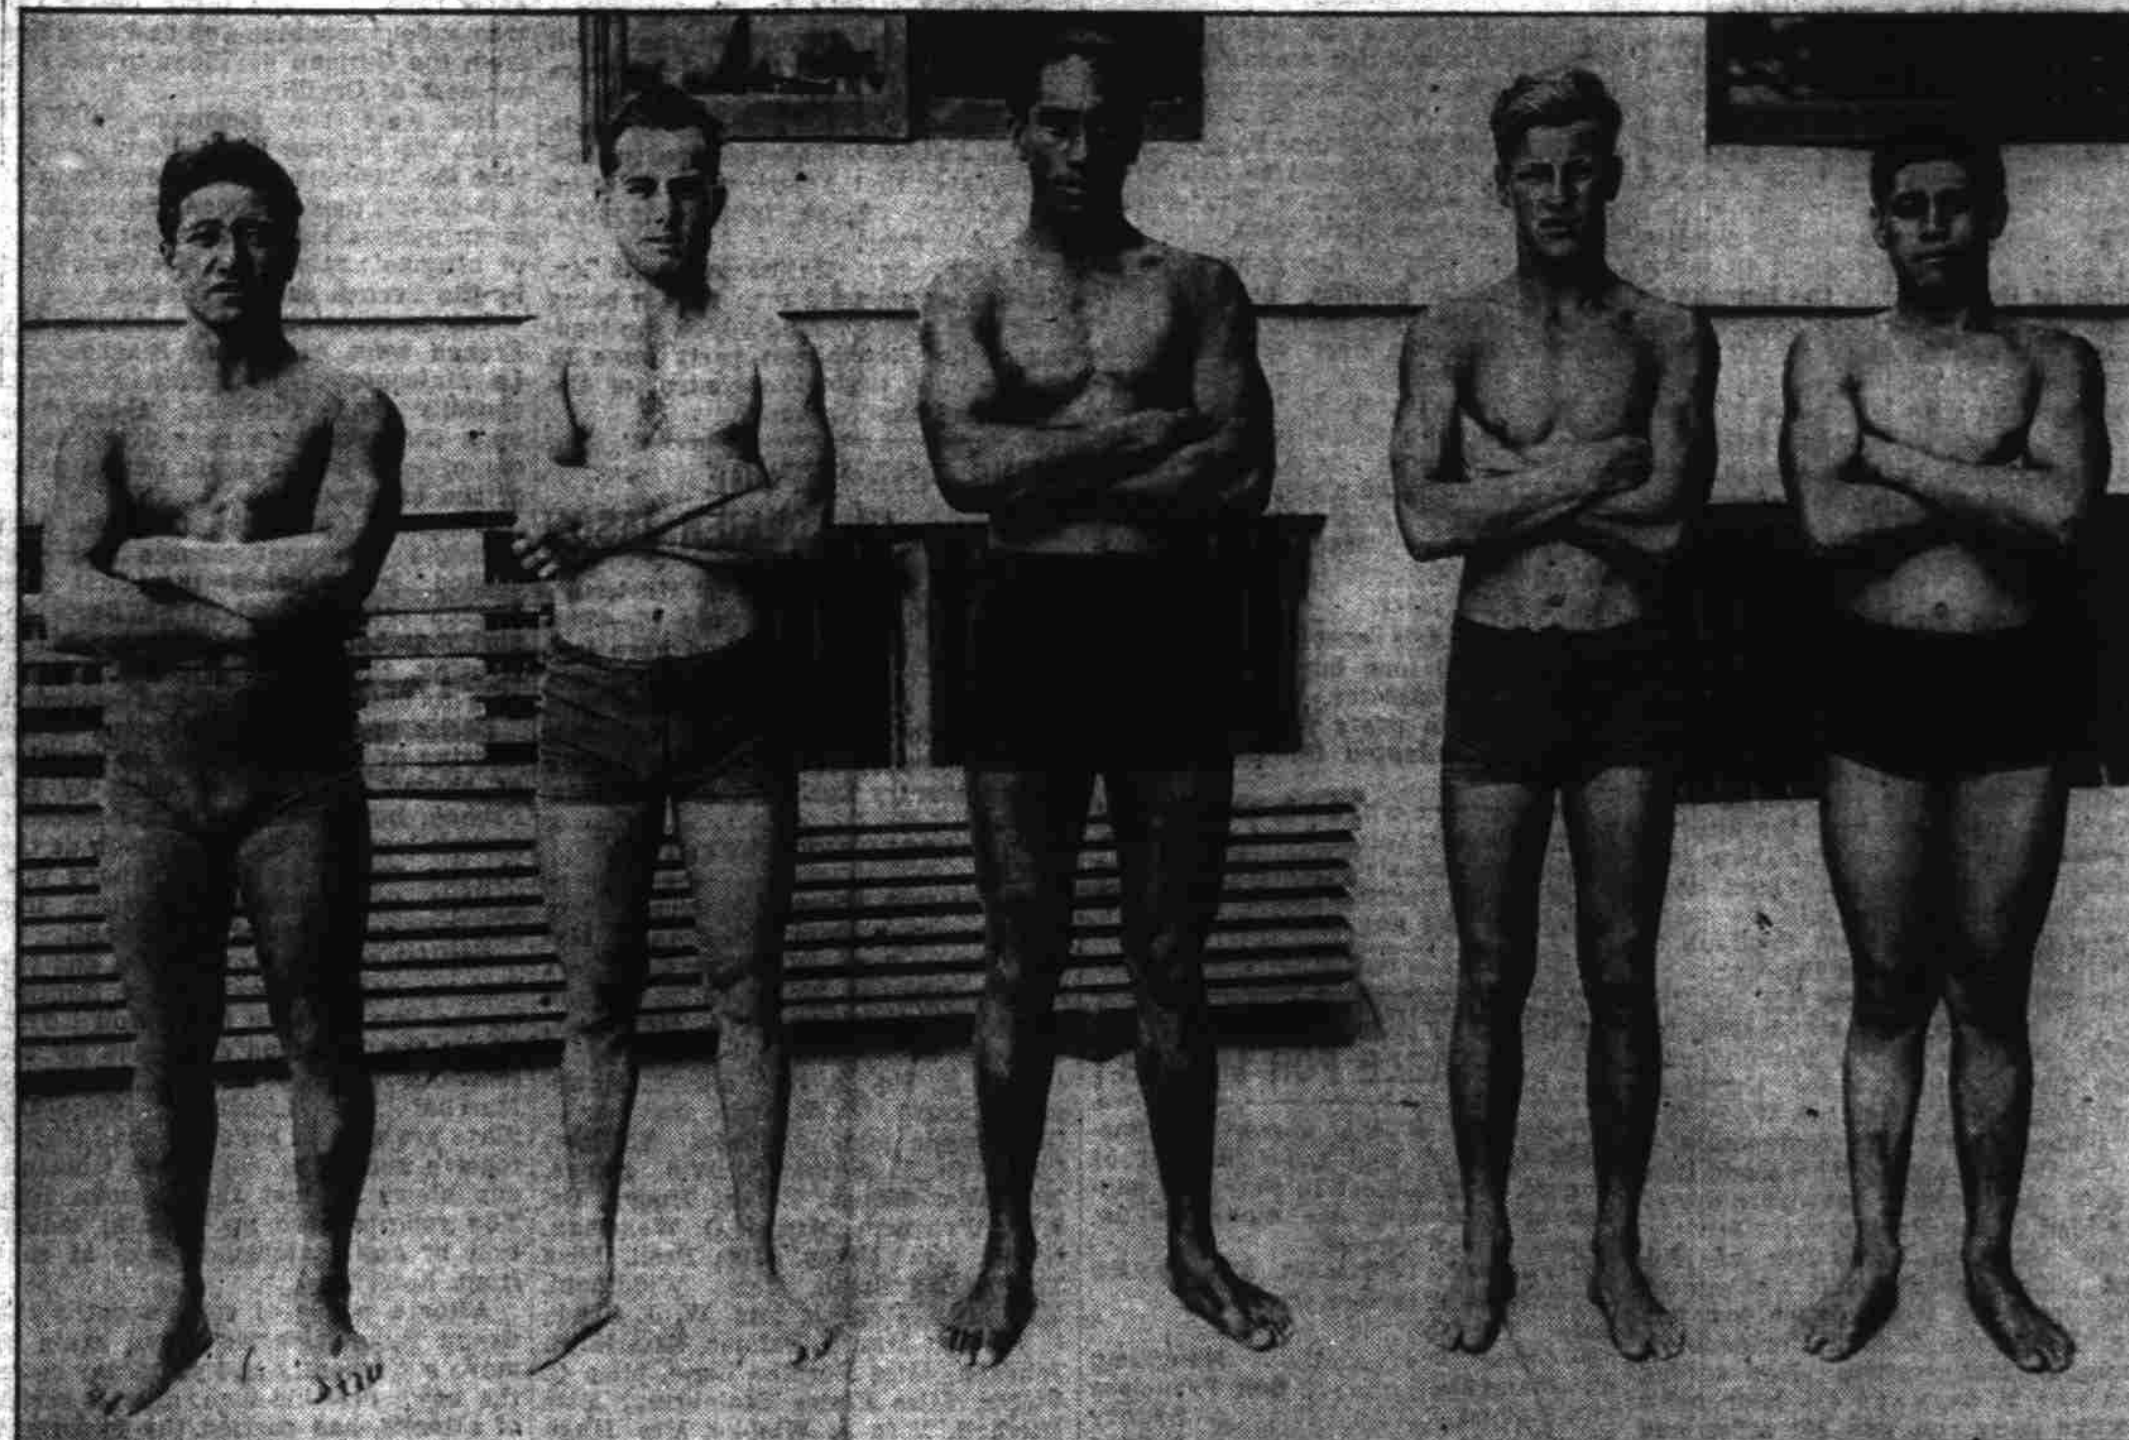

Transfer Here.

Wilson secured a double in the first inning, but was left. Leonard held St. Louis safe. After Gay had wiggled in the second, Hall singled, and "Presidente" Preciado doubled past Nye, and then Desmond hit a double to right and Hall and Preciado scored. Nye hit a hot one to Gay for a hit in the second, but was left. Wilson walked in the third and Bensberg found Barney for a double. Then Freitas handed Barney a transfer and told him to take the right-field line, and Janssen became the gunner. The damage was done, and O'Neill ambled, and Parke came home on Gay's sacrifice fly. Bensberg scored on an infield out.

Santa Clara scored one run in the sixth, but after that failed to find Janssen, and the two twirlers had a pitcher's battle with Leonard having a little the better of the argument. The feature of the play was a sensational stop by Ching Put, two innings after he had made a double play all by his lonesome.

Both Ching Put and Hoke played great ball in the field, and Peterson handled both his chances with ease. For Santa Clara Louis Milburn was all over the field, and Bensberg at

DUKE, CUNHA, LANE, KRUGER AND KELI WILL GO AFTER RECORDS

World's record, 400-yard relay, 11:11-performance, the early bird will be nois Athletic Club, 3:45 3-5. Illinois Athletic Club bath, Chicago, Ill., April 15, 1915.

A. C. Rathel, 0:55 1-5.
W. R. Vosburgh, 0:58 4-5.
Perry McGillivray, 0:55 4-5.
H. J. Hehner, 0:55 4-5.

World's record, 500-yard relay; time, 4:45 1-5; Illinois Athletic, May 1, 1913.
A. C. Rathel, 0:55.
H. J. Hehner, 0:57.
Perry McGillivray, 0:55 4-5.
W. R. Vosburgh, 0:58 1-5.
E. W. McGillivray, 0:59 1-5.

Will they do it? That is what the swimming fans are asking regarding the attempt which will be made on Saturday evening at the Y. M. C. A., when the five best swimmers of Honolulu will go after the world's record for the 400 and 500-yard relays, held by the Illinois Athletic Club.

The big relay event will be the big feature in local athletics this week and the Y. M. C. A. seating capacity will certainly not be large enough to seat the crowd which is expected to turn out to watch the swimmers go after two existing records. The boys are in training for this event and expect to lower both marks made by the Middle Western natators.

Fast Quartet

Duke P. Kahanamoku, George Cunha, Clarence Lane and John Kelli will go after the 400-yard record. Opinion is divided as to whether they will be able to lower the mark set by the Illinois athletes. Kelli has been practicing the turns, and this week Cunha will devote much of his time in giving the newcomer a few tips on getting extra speed at the end of the tank. Clarence Lane is a star at making the turns, while both Duke and Cunha have had much experience.

The local boys will have to do a 55, 56, 57 and 57-4-5 to tie the record. Everyone of the swimmers has made this time in trials and if they can all get going together they will lower the mark made last year in Chicago. In the 220-yard swim Kruger will join the other four in an attempt to smash the present mark. If Duke can hold Kahanamoku's time even, and Cunha can break even with McGillivray and Lane come through with a 57, then the record looks like a lost one for Illinois, as both Kelli and Kruger should lower the time made by Vosburgh and E. McGillivray.

With no charge for admission to the summary—Eleven at bat, 4 runs, 5 hits off Joy in 2-1-3 innings; two-base hits, Wilson, Preciado, Desmond, Bensberg; sacrifice hits, Leonard 3; Gay; stolen bases, Milburn 2, Gay; double plays, Janssen to Akana to Hoke, Ching Put, unassisted; bases on balls, off Joy 1, off Janssen 7; struck out, by Joy 1, Leonard 3; by Janssen 3; wild pitches, Janssen; passed balls, Soares. Umpires, Stayton at plate, Argabrite on bases. Time of game, 1 hour 32 minutes.

the wise one, as there is certain to be a record crowd on hand. This will be the biggest feature ever staged in the Y. M. C. A. tank and the spectators present should at least see one of the records smashed. Interest in swimming is increasing and the performance will add to the interest in the big swimming meet which will be held the first of September, when a great collection of stars will meet in the harbor.

Kalihi Boys' Club Hold Program to Conclude Session for the Summer; Trophies Given

On Saturday night the Kalihi Boys' Club closed for the vacation period and the closing was in the form of an ice cream and musical social for the members of the club.

A stringed orchestra with new records supplied the music. The trophies of the year were formally presented and the ribbons won by the members of the Kalihi Track Team were distributed.

Robley Talks to Boys

James Nott, Kalihi's physical director, opened the evening with a few remarks, at the end of which he introduced S. W. Robley who spoke on the value of a well balanced athlete emphasizing the necessity of keeping in the royal middle of the road. Since the first of the year Robley has had personal charge of the Kalihi Club with Nott as the physical director.

This arrangement was temporary, as the successor of Chamberlain was unable, because of advanced age, to handle the boys' department of the Kalihi Settlement. Now that Rev. C. H. McVey is in charge of Kalihi, Robley will be released from this extra responsibility.

Robley was followed by Rev. McVey who after congratulating the Kalihi boys along the line of their athletic accomplishments during the past year outlined to all those present his plans for the season of 1916 and 1917. In his talk Rev. McVey made very plain his ideas of boys' club work in which he called especial attention to the great need of the intellectual and the physical training that he intended to incorporate in the program for the coming year.

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence) SCHOFIELD BARACKS, July 14.—The 25th Infantry diamond was the scene of a double header in the regimental league today. In the first frame the K Company stalwarts was mauled, beaten and tossed about in the red dust of Schofield to the humiliating figures of ten runs to four. All this trimming was administered by the C Company stalwarts, ably led by one Simms, who pitches from the port side and had the sphere under perfect control. Likewise the K Company batsmen.

"Squirrel" Crafton's outfit was looked upon as a sure winner from the First Battalion team. Especially, as he and his bunch of big stick artists had knocked the props from under Company E in the last game. Probably this was their undoing, however. They didn't take today's game seriously until the end of the first inning and then they were on the round end of a 5 to 0 score.

Johnson, O-O-H, started as pitcher for K. In two innings he was the team's water boy and occupied a large white stone by the player's bench. Fagin relieved him as abate and bot his. Aulston picked out a fast shoot and drove it to the chapel for a complete circuit of the way stations. Mr. Fagin decided he could play first base better than pitch so he exchanged places with Crafton. "Squirrel" never posed as a pitcher but he looks quite as well as a lot of other who do. He kept up a running talk with each batsman that assisted him greatly in his work.

Said Smith, who covers all the ground between second and third for the regimental team as well as for the C Company team, did very pretty fielding today. He was always in the way of the ball when a K Company man managed to land on it. The result was inevitable. Those he didn't catch out he winged on their way to first.
